April 2 – First day back

Happy Friday everyone,

It was great to see many of you in yesterday. I hope it led to some good conversations both with the teachers as well as your children. It was fun for me to get a chance to walk around and see some of the kid's work as well. I have had some good feedback from both parents and staff about our event and we will make sure to make some improvements/adjustments if we choose to follow this format again next year.

Attached are the CVRD events handout as well as Jina Taylor's March movement calendar.

Hope it stops raining soon so I can get out golfing. That was one wet day. We don't call many 'Inside Days' here at Arden but they came in looking like cold drowned rats after first recess so we had an inside day at lunch.

Wishing you all a restful weekend....

Reminders

I would also like to share with you the March edition of The Physical Literacy Newsletter, designed specifically for parents. This newsletter aims to transfer the great work being done in our schools to the home environment, encouraging parents to join us in practicing Fundamental Movement Skills with their children.
