Hello everyone,

I have to agree with Ms. Cameron...that short week actually felt like a short week...for once:) It must have been the sunshine. It was also pretty fun to go out to the Outdoor Classroom on Wednesday and give out our “Arden Way Certificates” to the K/1’s. That is always good for a smile.

Next week we have a PAC meeting on Monday and the K/1 immunizations on Friday as our big ticket items. The following week we are excited about our 'Cedar Week' where Ms. Phye and Ms. Lyle have once again gathered a rich collection of guest speakers and activities all based around 'Cedar'. Also, on Friday of that week we have our Arden PAC Family Dance from 6:30-8:00 in the Gym. PAC would like me to remind parents that this is an event that you come to with your children, not just drop them off.

I have attached Jina Taylor's Parent Physical Literacy Resource for April. I was going to challenge myself to do the daily activities but I think I might hurt myself with some of those:)

I have also attached an interesting looking invitation to a Zoom presentation on Childhood Anxiety.

That is all I can think of for now. Thanks for being an awesome community!:)

Have a wonderful weekend.
