Happy Friday everyone,

As I write this, I am looking out the ferry window and feeling very grateful for our awesome Arden community. We have an amazing staff, and an amazing parent group, that care deeply about each and every one of our kiddos. I know we don't get everything right every day, but I can assure you that it is not from a lack of passion and dedication from our team.

We have a couple of field trips next week before the big 'scary' day:) Just a reminder that you may join us outside at 9:00 for our annual parade around the building. Also, a reminder that we ask students to leave any scary masks and weapons at home and to bring a change of clothing as we change out of our costumes by first recess.

Today was a big day for Ms. Mann as we had our new 'mega' stove installed in the kitchen. I can't wait to see her work her magic with her new 'toy':)

Finally, I hope no one is reading the right now and realizing that there is no school tomorrow as we have a ProD day...but just in case..

Ok..off to my ProD conference in Whistler.

I hope you all have a wonderful weekend and that you know you can call or email myself or Teresa at any time with questions or concerns.

Andrew
