Hello families

This week at Brooklyn we had fun outside in the nice weather, we even had facilities here cleaning up the field and rocks, we are definitely embarking on spring!

Sea Dome was here this week, all classes were able to engage in some fun sea explorations. Looking ahead at next week, we will be busy with all sorts of fun events and activities - it is spirit week! We will have Tug-O-War ropes out on Monday, we have a celebratory assembly, multiple dress up days, and Jump Rope for Heart!

Jump Rope for Heart

1. Many teachers will be kicking off next week with the Heart and Stroke INTRO Video
2. Brooklyn Elementary Heart and Stroke Fundraising.page is live if you wish to donate.
3. Next week students will be engaging in learning during class time, have the opportunity to jump at recess, be supported with jumping during PHE classes, and we will be doing a big school wide jump next Friday.

Brooklyn Spelling Bee

Once we return from the break some classes will be participating in a classroom Spelling Bee as they prepare for the Brooklyn Spelling Bee on April 10th. The Brooklyn Bee is open to students in grades 4-7, who will compete against one another. There are no grade specific categories at the School Bee, it is simply all gr 4-7 on the same playing field, may the best speller win.... The top 3 spellers from the Brooklyn Bee will move on to the District Bee, which will be held at Brooklyn on Thur April 16th. Teachers have study packages and the sign up sheet.
