CAREERS

OLDER NEWS

- * Vanier's Peer Support club will be offering drop-in on Thursday's at lunch in the counselling office. The Peer supporters are Vanier students in grade 10-12 who have received training through the Vancouver Island Crisis Society. Peer supporters work closely with Vanier school counsellors. They are available Thursdays at lunch in the counselling office on a drop-in basis and are there to listen and support other students.
- * Are you finding yourself a bit too chilly as this winter begins? There are tons of nice warm jackets, sweaters, tuques, scarves, gloves, socks, snow pants and even boots available for free in this school! Please ask your teacher to go see Ms. van Waterschoot in room 111 either at lunch or during C-Block. You can take your pick of the many items (and there are some nice ones!) available to keep you a little warmer!
- * Yearbook
Have you ordered your 2022/23 yearbook yet? We've got around 35 books left so if you're thinking about ordering one, do it before next Friday! Order on-line through MyEdBC or at the office using cash or card. $55.
- * Any grade 12 students interested in taking first year Psychology classes through NIC this spring, please come see Dawn or Dawnn in the Careers office. We pay the tuition for the course and you get credit at Vanier and at the college. These courses are transferable to most universities and help offset the workload in your first year.
- * Indigenous Education will be serving soup every Tuesday at Lunch.

✱ BCCPAC Educational Award

The Educational Award honours Ona Mae Roy, a past president of the BCCPAC. Ona Mae Roy dedicated her life to improving the quality of life of all children through the advancement of their health, welfare, and education. In pursuing this goal, she gave strength and encouragement to all who advocate for children. It is the wish of BCCPAC and those who have contributed to this award that children will continue to benefit in memory of a valiant lady. This award is available annually.

Award Criteria

The award is open to any Grade 12 student attending a BCCPAC-member school who is planning to pursue post-secondary studies (academic, vocational, technical or training). The award honours a well-rounded student who is involved and interested in many things and has an understanding of the importance of parent involvement in education. The recipient will receive an award in the amount $1,000.

The Educational Award Application submission deadline is February 28, 2023.
