

Mathematics

The goals of all pathways are to provide prerequisite attitudes, knowledge, skills and understanding for specific post-secondary programs or direct entry into the workforce. When choosing a pathway, students should consider their current abilities and future interests.

Teacher Recommendations:

