

CVRR YOUTH BURSARY

Comox Valley Roadrunners is a non-profit organization formed in 1980 to foster and promote running and healthy lifestyle in our community. As part of our mandate, we would like to offer a $1000 bursary to a graduating student. It is directed to a Comox Valley student that is competing at the regional, provincial or national level in road running, cross country running, or track running events.

Eligibility and Criteria:

- a) Graduating this year and will be entering their first year of full-time studies at a post-secondary institution.
- b) Resident of the Comox Valley.
- c) Participant or member of a Vancouver Island running association or club, school running or cross country team.
- d) Demonstrates financial need.
- e) Demonstrates a healthy lifestyle and school and/or community involvement.
- f) Have obtained an acceptable academic record.

Candidates who meet all of these criteria are invited to apply for this CVRR Youth Bursary. In addition to the attached application form, please submit a letter of support from the community, school, OR coach AND a copy of your academic transcript.

Complete applications must be submitted by July 15th. The award will be made prior to September. The funds will be distributed to the award winner by the CVRR Treasurer upon receipt of proof of enrollment to a post-secondary institute.

Please ensure all required material is included with the application.
Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

Applications may be submitted electronically to the treasurer@cvrr.ca and must be received by July 15th to be considered.

The CVRR executive selection committee will select a successful applicant from applications that meet the qualifying criteria but reserve the right to withhold the funds where applications received are deemed, at the executive's discretion, to not meet qualifying criteria.

Applicants who are successful may be asked for photos or quotes to be included in club press releases and/or promotional materials and may also be asked to appear at club promotional events.
