NEW

- Attention all Grade 8 students! Spring is here! Join us for some fun, outdoor activities! Tuesday and Thursday from 12-12:30. Football, soccer, frisbee and more! We will meet outside, in front of the wood shop classroom. Weather permitting. For any questions, see Ms. Rushton or Ms. Mcleod.
- District Robotics: Eight Robotics71 students travelled to Dallas, Texas last week to compete at the World Championships. They represented Vancouver Island as two teams, qualifying at 16/82 and 36/84 in their divisions- with Team 7842Z going on to Division Semi Finals (top 10% out of 834 Teams at Worlds). Congratulations to Highland's Benoit Vaillant on your achievements! Learn more about the program at <https://www.comoxvalleyschools.ca/robotics71/> and check out this short recap video for more: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=L_UNhw1AbZ0
- Mandatory mountain biking meeting this Thursday at lunch in the metal shop. Colin Adey, Ewen Steel, Dylon Erikson, Koen Rose, Tanner Coe, Rowan Coupe, Ryder Curtain, and Malte Graeff must attend.
- Positive Eco News: After saving 1.5 million meals in Quebec already, Too Good To Go expands to all 112 Super C locations across the province. They run a program that allows customers to purchase "Surprise Bags" of perishable items that would otherwise be thrown away. Shoppers can save money while fighting food waste because the discount supermarket chain has joined forces with the surplus food marketplace to offer unsold food at half price or less.
- This Friday's flex – Flex Day 1 – A B C Lunch D Flex
