

PAC Meeting - January 13, 2021 @7pm ZOOM Meeting

Call to order-

I would like to begin by acknowledging that we are fortunate to be able to gather on the unceded territory of the K'ómoks First Nations, including Sathloot, Sasitla, leeksun, Puledge, Cha'chae, and Tat'poos Peoples.

In attendance-

Zoom- Alissa Pratt, Faith Martens, Alexandra Lamont, Jala Klone, Braea Whalmsley, Judith Ayers, Bree Stotts, Rob Zielinski, Sheila Mcdonnell and Jade Wilson

Additions to the agenda- None

Approval of agenda- None

Approval of minutes - agenda and minutes approved, motion by Faith, Braea seconds motion

VP Report- Alissa Pratt

-Ian Heselgrave

Foundations skills assessments delayed until February.

Florette was very appreciative of funds given for books and has already bought many.

New school tour in the works

Waiting on basketball hoop and ball wall for outdoor shelter

Spark meetings will begin soon, still trying to figure out the best way to communicate with parents.

The current learning theme is Structures

The primary class (k-3) is currently full, we may need to restructure other classrooms to make room for new students.

Alissa is working on the best way to support new kids in school and homeschool activities.

Judi's Class-

Currently working on vision boards and goals for 2021 with students. Working on strategies for anxiety

Presidents report- Alexandra

Shannon and Bridge Warwick are willing to have a zoom meeting with their lawyer if anyone would like to speak to them.

Treasurers Report- Braea

Winter Fair Wreaths $1,540

Donations $750

Gaming $1620

Checking total $17, 399.58

School Zone-

The RCMP have been doing speed checks in the school zone and will continue to do so and monitor

Field Trips-

New Arts Council site

Outdoor education in January, February and March

While older class is at outdoor ed, the primary class will do science days and stemm projects.

Fundraising - We still need ideas

Chow for now- Braea/Alexandra

all meals went very well and will continue

Meeting Adjourned - 8:01 pm