

Boxing

From J.D. Wilhelm's Inquiring Minds
Learn to Read and Write

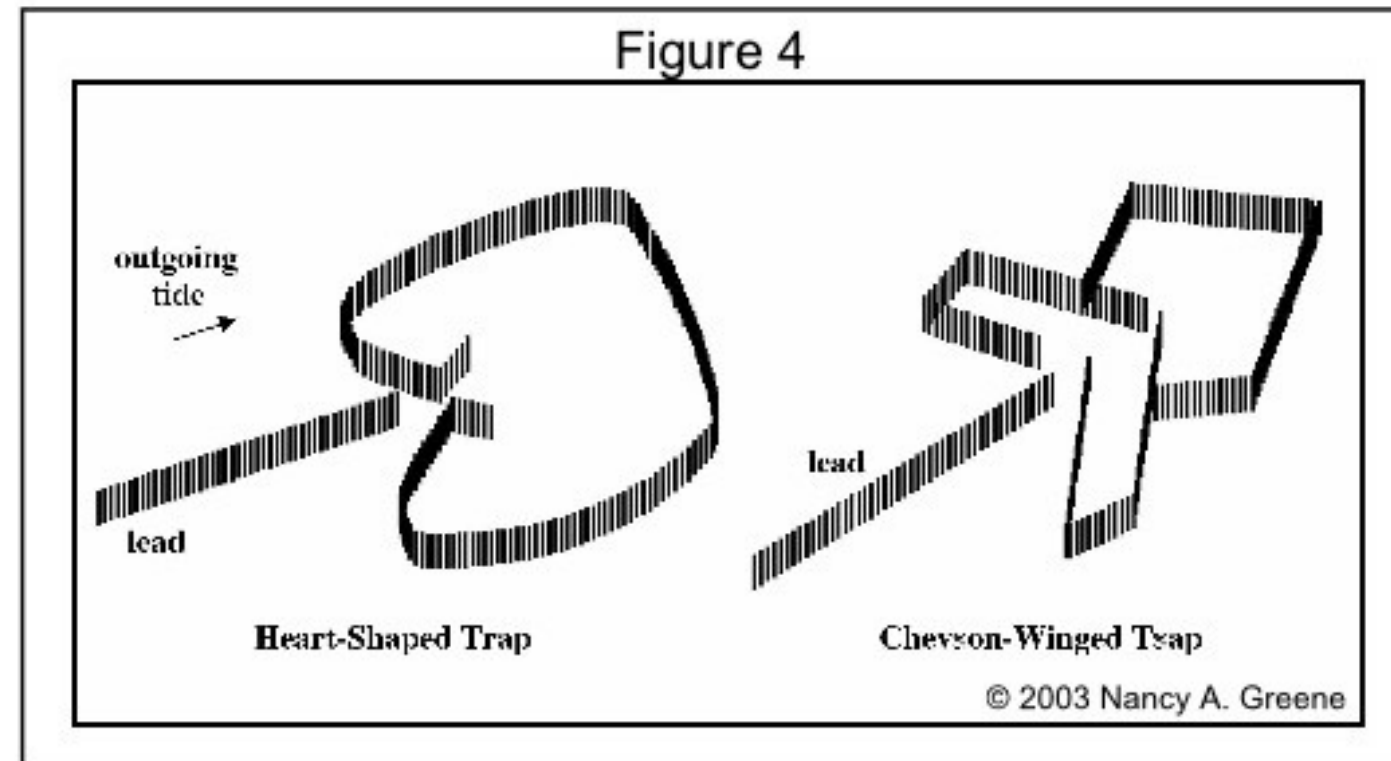

On the next few pages, you will see an image surrounded by a box. Students look carefully at an image and write what they notice, think or wonder about the image. Once have had a chance to record their thoughts, they pass the sheet to another person who reads the comments and then adds their own thoughts.

The purpose of this is to explore a topic by looking at a picture and generating thinking.

I notice...

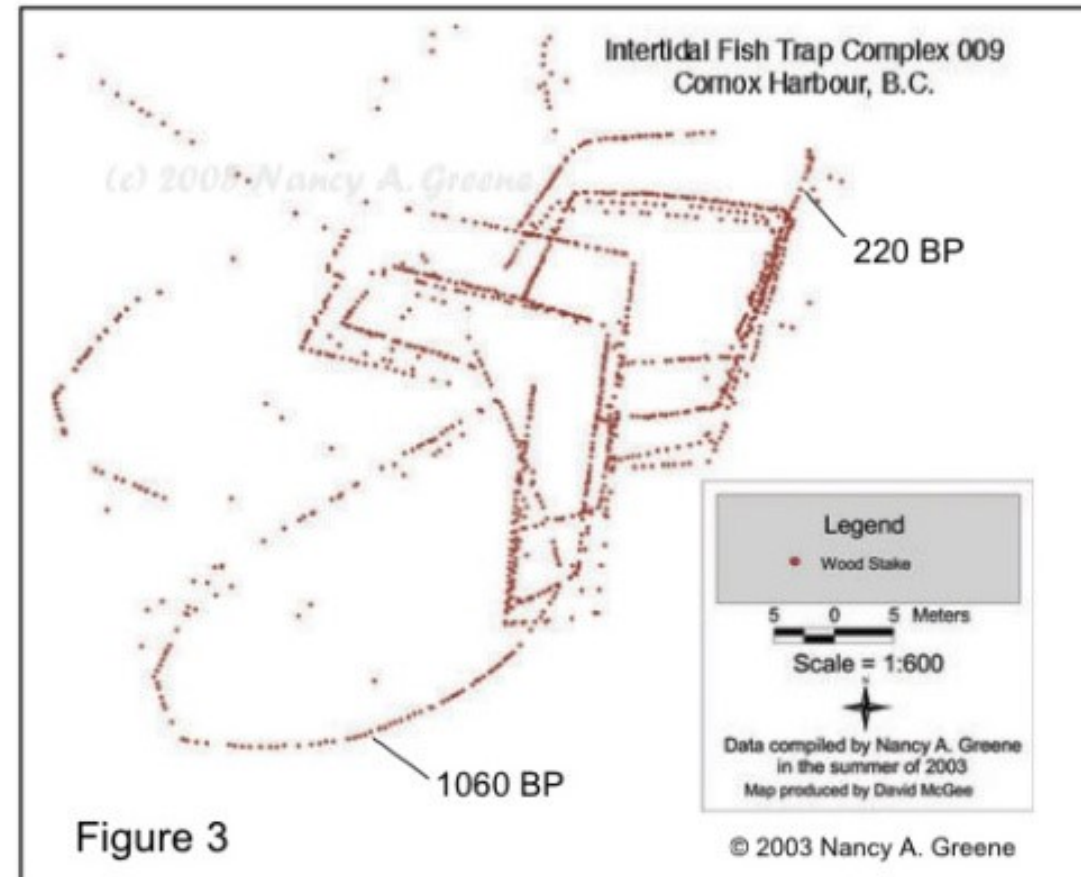

I think...

I wonder...

I notice...

I think...

I wonder...

I notice...

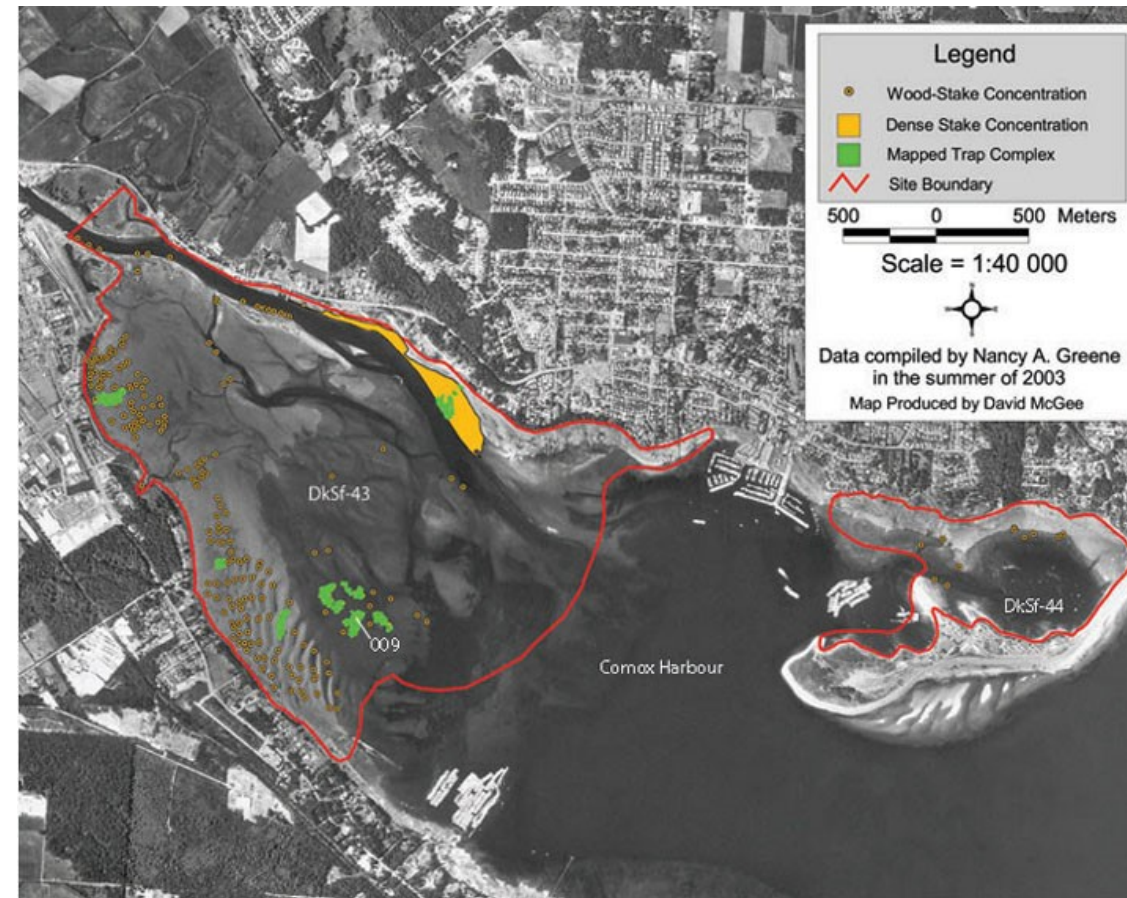

I think...

I wonder...

I notice...

I think...

I wonder...

I notice...

I think...

I wonder...