

Our Learning Intentions:

I can begin to explore and consider the impacts of the Residential School experience with a lens of compassion.

I can think critically. I can make meaningful personal connections; I can infer from photographs; I can connect and engage with others to share and develop ideas.