

Our Learning Intentions:

I can ask questions, gather, interpret and analyze ideas and communicate my understandings of the Residential School experience.

I can think critically. I can make meaningful personal connections; I can infer from photographs; I can connect and engage with others to share and develop ideas.