Our school sexual health nurse will be here today between 11:30-1. No appointment necessary, just drop in to Student Services.

The winners of the Poem in your pocket contest are Lilianne B and Mr. Holland. Please come down to the library to collect your prize! Thank you all participants, and an honourable mention goes to Ms. Martens!

Countdown to Mental Health and Awareness Week - reminder to all Isfeld students to register for either a full afternoon session or 2 shorter sessions for Wednesday Unplug and Play afternoon! Yes, all students are to sign up for something! Check your student email or scan the QR code! Make sure you sign up early to get your choice of activity as there is limited space in some sessions!

Are you going to NIC next year? – there will be an NIC rep in Student Services between 9-12 to answer all your questions.

Grads - Valedictorian applications are due by today. Info in the survey.

REDress Week:

In 2023 it was announced that the deaths and disappearances of Indigenous women, girls and 2 spirited people were declared as a Canada wide emergency by the House of Commons. The facts are that Indigenous women are 12 times more likely to be murdered or go missing than other women in Canada, and 16 times more likely to be killed or disappear. Our country recognizes through this declaration this is a result of colonization on our Indigenous communities.

Again, Space will be available in student services for discussions & support if needed. As a reminder, please remember to wear red on Thursday May 2, 2024.
