

Biography – Tanya Larkin – Educational Leader, Equity Advocate, and Career Pathways Champion

Tanya Larkin is a passionate leader who brings over two decades of diverse teaching and administrative experience to her role. Currently serving as Career Pathways Coordinator and former Vice Principal at Brooks Secondary in the qathet School District, Tanya has consistently demonstrated a deep commitment to inclusive, student-centred education.

With a Master of Education in Educational Leadership from Vancouver Island University, a Graduate Diploma in Learning and Teaching with Technology from Simon Fraser University, and a Bachelor of Education from the University of Victoria, Tanya blends academic expertise with practical leadership experience. Her work spans secondary education, alternative programming, Indigenous education, and adult learning.

Tanya has led numerous district initiatives focused on careers, trades, and transitions, working closely with post-secondary institutions, Indigenous Education departments, community partners, and families to create engaging pathways for student success. She is also a long-time dual credit coordinator, MyEd specialist, and advocate for inclusive and restorative practices, including work with the qathet Community Justice Program.

A champion of equity and Truth and Reconciliation, Tanya integrates land-based learning and cultural collaboration into her leadership. Her approach is grounded in building respectful relationships and ensuring that every learner feels seen, valued, and supported.

Tanya's dedication has earned her recognition as a Career Education Society Board Member, skilled grant writer, and organizer of province-wide student opportunities including Skills Canada competitions, Women in Trades events, and dual credit showcases. She is widely respected for her ability to balance strategic planning with hands-on support for students and staff alike.

Tanya joins Comox Valley Schools with a deep belief in the power of compassionate, collaborative leadership and a proven track record of aligning vision with action to lift every learner.
