

ROYSTON

ELEMENTARY

SCHOOL GROWTH PLAN HIGHLIGHTS

2026-2027

SCHOOL FOCUS

Creating a caring, inclusive learning community where every student develops strong literacy, numeracy, self-regulation, and a sense of belonging through relationship-based learning and the BC Core Competencies.

◆ WHAT MAKES ROYSTON UNIQUE

Sense of Place — Deep community roots and strong family connections
Strong and supportive PAC
Outdoor learning opportunities
Proximity to the Ocean – School Garden —
Strong value of CORE competencies: Character Assemblies, Rest and Reset Room, and CORE Ed classes for all students, conflict resolution through tough talks and restorative practices
Play-based early learning communities and multi-age group activities
Evidence-informed literacy and intervention practices

🎯 KEY PRIORITIES

Strengthening Personal Awareness and Responsibility, Social Responsibility, and Communication
Continue improving literacy and numeracy achievement
Build self-regulation, resilience, and positive relationships
Deepen Indigenous and land-based learning
Strengthen attendance, engagement, and family partnerships

➔ EVIDENCE GUIDING THE WORK

Literacy achievement now exceeds district averages
Numeracy achievement has steadily improved and surpassed district averages
Students report strong connections to school and caring adults
Staff continue to focus on self-regulation, resilience, communication, and attendance to support every learner
Supportive Parent community

♥ SUCCESS WILL LOOK LIKE

Students communicate effectively
Students regulate their emotions and solve problems peacefully
Students demonstrate empathy and resilience
Students advocate for themselves
Students attend school consistently
Students continue to strengthen literacy and numeracy skills

◆ HOW WE'LL GET THERE

Evidence-informed literacy and numeracy instruction
Restorative practices
Rest and Reset Room supports
Universal Design for Learning
Outdoor and Indigenous learning experiences
Collaborative staff inquiry and targeted interventions
Strong partnerships with families and the Royston community.

